

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: On July 10, 2014, The Toro Company celebrates a "Century of Innovation," achieving the rare business milestone of reaching 100 years in business; and
- WHEREAS: Since its founding in 1914, The Toro Company has been based in the State of Minnesota, with its global headquarters in Bloomington, Minnesota, and manufacturing operations in Shakopee and Windom, Minnesota; and
- WHEREAS: The Toro Company is committed to helping its valued customers enrich the beauty, productivity, and sustainability of the land; and
- WHEREAS: The remarkable longevity of The Toro Company is attributable to, among other things, the character, ingenuity, and hard work of its employees, distributors, and dealers; and
- WHEREAS: The Toro Company's investment in research and development helps to promote innovation and supports the needs of the customers and industries it serves; and
- WHEREAS: The Toro Company has a rich history of giving back to the communities and industries in the State of Minnesota and around the world.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARK DAYTON, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Thursday, July 10, 2014, as:

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 3rd day of July.
